About Samkalp

MISSION

- To identify and guide students who can contribute towards nation building through civil services and help them inculcate Indian values and ethos.
- To imbibe in them the values of honesty, integrity, compassion, social commitment, excellence, foresightedness, determination, devotion to duty, loyalty and dedication to the national welfare.
- To help develop the leadership qualities and management skills besides innovative thinking, Samkalp is making efforts to infuse these qualities through meticulously planned activities at different levels of their studies in a progressive manner.

VISION

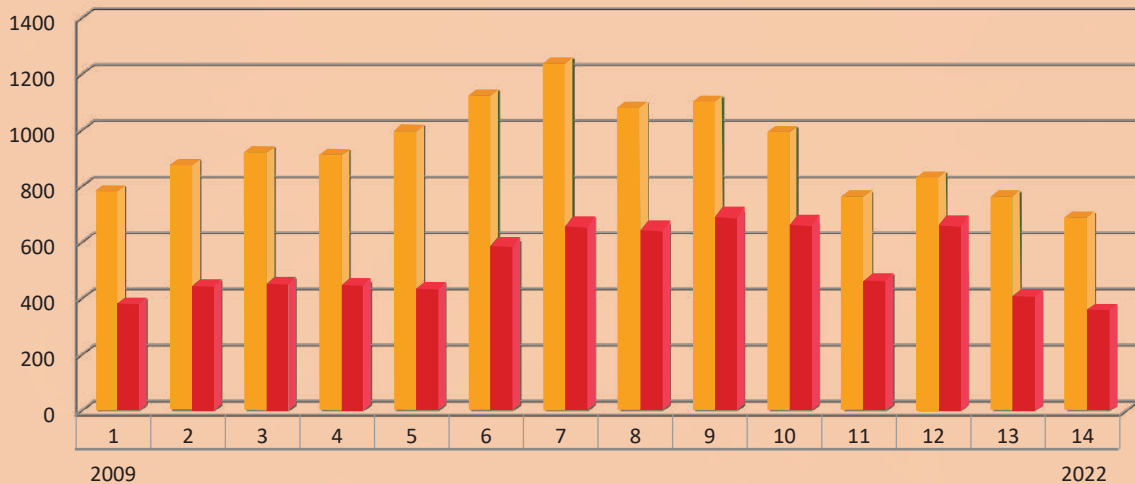

“It has been felt for quite a long time that honest, sincere, socially committed nationally inspired innovative and imaginative persons including those from disadvantaged segments of Indian society should join the civil services. This will certainly invigorate the pace of change and ensure the participation of millions of Indians especially the socially and economically weaker classes in developmental process of the nation. Samkalp wants to make sincere efforts to achieve this vision.”

- The journey of Samkalp was started in 1986. The online Civil Service coaching activities are carried out through a like-minded organization – Madhav Sharshthi Nyas.
- Samkalp has a team of over 250 former Civil Servants, Academicians, and Social workers of eminence who devote their valuable time to guide and interact with these civil services aspirants.
- Over 50 percent of students coached by Samkalp belong to SC, ST and OBC. Till date, about 7800 Civil Servants have successfully qualified the UPSC after benefitting from the popular Interview Guidance Programme and courses run by Samkalp.
